Aloha Mai e Prince Kūhiō Ohana:

As your Officers and Board of Directors reflect on the last quarter we are amazed at the activities of our 'ohana and the contributions made to our community. The challenge is to continue to make progress. In keeping with this, we thank all of you who completed the Member Services Survey. Your responses have been compiled and we will report out on our findings and our future steps. Congratulations to Dr. VerlieAnn Malina-Wright on her nomination as the Pacific Business News

Woman of the Year in the Non-profit Category and Winona Whitman on her appointment by the U. S. Secretary of Labor to the Council for Native Americans.

The Club funded 25 scholarships from the Pa'ina and Moon Calendar sales, the proceeds of which determine the number of scholarships. Thanks to all for your generosity during our December Pa'ina. Remember the Pa'ina occurs every two years so the fundraising covers two years of scholarships.

Mahalo nui to all of you who helped with the Kamehameha Day Mo'i Float building and decorating. A special mahalo nui to Akana Trucking, the Prince Kūhiō Waikikī Hilton (a corporate partner) who donated bottles of water to quench the thirst of volunteers, David Kawanakoa's crew for returning again to construct the frame for our float, Ihilani Chu and Loko'olu Quintero with their haumana from Halau Hula Ihilani O Nu'uaniu, Aunty Mele, Uncle David Peters and their granddaughter for the beautiful ginger, Cindy Rosebrough and Mariners Cove Condominiums for the wonderful greenery, Aunty Mandy Bowers for arranging for us to continue Uncle Miki's tradition of gathering greenery and flowers from their neighbor's back forest and most of all to Uncle David Ka'aha'aina, the overall chairperson, for his exceptional dedication to our float construction.

We also discovered hidden talents in the father-son team of Richard and Ron Fernandez and their floral arranging and Kumu Kalei and Christine who showed us "have staple gun will travel". Aunty Liz, Aunty Bonnie, Aunty Alma, Aunty Ivanelle, Aunty Euphemia, Uncle Richard Nagashima, Uncle Lilbert and Uncle Richard Jackson showed us "Kupuna still can do".

Ken Sitch was so generous he even helped Ko'olaupoko HCC with their float. Tommy, Bruce, Charmain and Claire kept things organized and Moani Sitch and her friends from UH InterVarsity Christian Fellowship were willing hands to help wherever help was needed.

Me ke aloha,
Your president, Chasmin

New Members

Aloha and welcome to the new members who have joined PKHCC: educators Kerri-Ann Hewett Fraser and Joe Fraser, students Heidi Kaloi and Janalle Kaloi-Chen, Denise Kekuna, Coordinator at Pacific Islands Medical Services, retired educator Kilani Ventura, realtor associate Tehane Wurdeman and attorney Richard Wurdeman. 𐄂

Speakers

Kehau Watson discussed some of the issues surrounding the Honolulu Railway Transit during the April meeting. She suggested that people get involved by attending meetings to understand the concerns and to participate in making recommendations, especially about the cultural artifacts that will be affected by the railway transit route.

In May, Kehaunani Abad and Keola Akana from Kamehameha Publishing spoke about their organization's focus on Hawaiian culture, community and language in their publications. They also demonstrated their interactive website with its multimedia applications and games at www.kamehamehapublishing.org. 𐄂

AOHCC Constitutional Convention

Dreanna Kalili attended the June meeting to speak about the Constitutional Convention of the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs. Dreanna is a member of the Convention Committee and manages the resolutions brought forward by the civic clubs and distributes them to the proper committees for discussion.

The Con Con is held every ten years to discuss any amendments to the AOHCC Constitution.

This year's Con Con is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 25, during Convention week.

PKHCC should review the AOHCC Constitution before the Convention and determine what changes, if any, should be made. Each club is allowed to send to the Con Con half of the number of delegates who attended the previous year's AOHCC Convention. The AOHCC Constitution can be found at the aohcc.org website under Resources | Governing Documents. 𐄂

Field of Study: Hawaiian Studies/Marine Science
PKHCC Award: 2010

Everyone said that I would be bored in Hilo, and at first, I thought they were right. For the first couple of weeks there was absolutely NOTHING to do... but then I got involved! I started with working in the Kīpuka Māla (the native Hawaiian garden), and that opened up the doors to many other projects. For my University 101 class, we participated in the kīpaepae to welcome our new chancellor to campus, we went to Hale O Lono Fishpond and helped rebuild the walls, and we volunteered at the Hilo Wayfinding and Navigation Conference. In the Anthropology Club, we are helping to restore Kūki'i heiau, and in the Hawaiian Club we went to different places in Puna and Ke'ei to clean up and meet with kūpuna. Overall, Hilo has exactly what I wanted out of college. I get to experience all the Hawaiian related things that I wanted to do, learning from kūpuna, working the 'āina, and basically just doing my part to help the culture. Some people don't expect community service to be fun, but it really is and I learn so much just being around these people who are so akamai in what they do. Mahalo nui to Prince Kūhio Hawaiian Civic Club for allowing me to be exactly where I want to be, doing exactly what I want to do. 𐄂

Kini Poi Revival 2011

Club members with long memories have reminisced about the years when the Scholarship Pa'ina alternated with the Kini Poi. The Pa'ina was the more formal fundraising event and the Kini Poi was planned as a day for members to bring their families together to relax and have fun. It was a pot luck with the Club providing poi in a large calabash from which people would scoop individual portions.

The Board members decided to revive the Kini Poi this year at the Kawanānakoā Beach House in Punalu'u, the venue for many of the former celebrations. It will be held on Saturday, July 30 from 9am - 3pm. Please check your email or mailbox for the flyers. Contact Charmain Wong (842-8507) or email pkhcc64@gmail.com. ☺
